THE Good Templars' lodge will meet at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening in Hourston's hall instead of the Baptist church.

THE telegrams we publish to-day from the south put quite a different complexion on matters to that attempted to be conveyed by the Herald "extra" issued on Saturday evening.

THE Rev. H. A. Gray, of South Edmonton, will take a three weeks' holiday in July and his pulpit will be occupied by Rev. R. M. Hawkins, late of Carist church, Brighton, England.

A. L. SIFTON, of Calgary, will arrive on to-night's train and will speak in Mr. Oliver's interest at the meeting which has been called by Mr. Cochrane's committee in Robertson's hall to-night.

Brown found his in the bush north of town to-day very much damaged, but McNeil has not yet recovered his wheel. A reward is offered for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties.

M. MATHESON returned on Monday's train from Rossland, B. C. During his stay there he had fever and inflammation and was confined to his bed for nearly three months. There are numbers of people going in there, and many men are unable to find employment. The rush of men to that town just now is far in excess of the number required there.

M. MCCAULEY returned yesterday from an electioneering trip to Beaver lake, through the Vermillion country, and east to Victoria and Manawan. He reports that roads are good, crops are looking fine, and there is considerably more grass than in this district. Farmers are all jubilant and taking considerable interest in political matters. He found the feeling throughout the trip very much in favor of Mr. Oliver.

THE Loch Lomond Lodge of Edmonton I. O. G. T. was organized on Friday evening last in the Baptist church by W. McAdam, D. D. C. T. The name was adopted as a compliment to Mr. McAdam and the lodge in Scotland from which he came. The officers elected on Friday were as follows: C. T., W. J. Hunter; V. T., D. Evans; P. C. T., R. J. Manson; chaplain, Rev. C. B. Freeman; secretary, S. Chivers Wilson; treasurer, Miss Ida Tremble; M., W. Nettleton; D. M., Mrs. Chivers Wilson; G., W. McAdam; L. D., S. Chivers Wilson. These officers were duly installed by the D. D. C. T. The next meeting of the lodge will be held on Thursday at 8 p. m., in Hourston's Hall, when new members will be received and other business attended to. The charter will be kept open for a month or so to enable all who desire to take advantage of joining as charter members to do so.

CAMPAIGN MEETINGS.

A large meeting was held at A. E. Putnam's house, Namao, on Friday evening called by Mr. Oliver's supporters at which about 35 were present. C. M. Woodworth spoke for Mr. Oliver for about one hour and was given a good hearing. He was followed by J. C. F. Bown on behalf of Mr. Cochrane in a forty minute speech. Mr. Bown seemed to have very little heart for tackling the railway or tariff questions and his defence of the monopoly and tariff met with derision. Cochrane apparently had three supporters in the audience one of whom was doubtful.

At South Edmonton last Thursday night a meeting was held which had been called by Mr. Cochrane's committe. Parrish's hall was well filled with a good representative audience who listened to the speakers with attention. Mr. McLean, chairman of the South Edmonton conservative association, was in the chair. S. S. Taylor, Q. C., spoke for Mr. Cochrane for an hour and a half and was frequently applauded by a few young men at the back of the hall. When Mr. Oliver rose to reply he was received with a perfect volley of applause which was continued for several minutes. He proved at every point in his speech that Mr. Taylor's remarks had been arguments in favor of his own position rather than that of Mr. Cochrane in regard to the several questions mentioned. Mr. Taylor had asked for a definite answer as to whether Mr. Oliver would vote for the remedial bill or not, replied that he would not vote for the remedial bill as it was an injustice to the minority. When asked if he would vote for separate schools in Manitoba he replied that the privy council had not decided that Manitoba must have separate schools and until it had so decided he did not see how himself or anyone else could vote for such. He believed as he stated, in equal justice to all, and would favor a policy of conciliation in the matter. Referring to pork, oats and barley Mr. Oliver demolished Mr. Taylor's plausible arguments in one sentence by saying that if protection was any use to the farmer it should keep up the price of oats and barley so that the farmer could sell them at so good a profit as to make it unnecessary to feed them to hogs to sell at three or four cents per pound. The audience cheered lustily at every hit made by Mr. Oliver and when he resumed his seat all except about thirty left. The chairman asked them to stay and hear Mr. Taylor's reply, but they answered that they wanted no more clap-trap and continued their way down the stairs and out cheering for Oliver as they went. Mr. Taylor replied in a few words and the few remaining cheered again for Oliver and the Queen.

A meeting had been called at Spruce Grove school for two o'clock on Friday by the Cochranites but none attended. In the evening at 7 o'clock a meeting was held at McDonald's, Stony Plain. Mr. McPherson presided. Dr. Wilson spoke for Cochrane going over the usual amount of ancient history. Rev. Mr. Eberhardt was asked to speak, but refused to take any party side in public meetings and suggested that H. Reeder be asked to explain certain things he had said when canvassing for Cochrane. Reeder failed to appear and C. W. Sutter was called on to speak for Mr. Oliver which he did in German repeating his remarks in English for Dr. Wilson's benefit. Mr. Lindley was called by the audience and said they were all Oliver men and intended to remain so and prove their position as such on the 23rd,

On Tuesday evening at Deep Creek the school house was crowded. J. B. Smith, Q. C., Spoke for Cochrane and McCauley and Fluker for Oliver. The meeting was closed at one o'clock a. m. and appearances showed that the electors present were solid for Oliver.

The next meeting had been advertised by the Cochrane committee for one o'clock on Wednesday, at Beaver Lake west, but no notices had been sent out and none attended. McCauley was on hand to speak for Oliver, but Cochrane's representatives did not arrive till 4.30. No meeting was held, but Mr. McCauley made a most satisfactory canvass for Mr. Oviver.

On Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. the meeting was at Beaver Lake east. Here again the notices had not been properly given and very few attended. Mr. F. W. W. Fane took the chair. J. B. Smith addressed the electors for Cochrane and M. McCauley for Oliver. Several others spoke on each side and the feeling was most favorable to Mr. Oliver's candidature.

At Egg Lake on Thursday evening there was a large attendance. The chair was taken by J. B. Gordon and addresses on behalf of Cochrane were delivered by Messrs. Tims and Smith, and by McCauley and Hughson for Oliver. There were probably not more than half a dozen present who favored Mr. Cochrane's

On Friday at 11 a. m., at Victoria Geo. Kennedy took the chair. The meeting was held at Buchanan's house, which was crowded. Tims and Smith were the speakers for Cochrane and McCauley for Oliver. Victoria has another pretty solid vote for Oliver.

On Friday evening there was a very small turnout at Edna. Tims and Smith again spoke for Cochrane and McCauley for Oliver. The meeting seemed to be almost unanimously in favor of Oliver.

At Fort Saskatchewan on Saturnay night F. Fraser Tims in the chair. There was a large audience present. S. S. Taylor, P. J. Nolan, J. B. Smith and Frank Oliver were in attendance to address the electors. J. B. Smith, Q. C., was the first spaaker and said he had much pleasure in appearing for the first time in Fort Saskatchewan. He regretted that other engagements prevented Mr. Cochrane's presence there. (Laughter.) Regarding trade question the lines of demarcation between the two parties were pretty well defined. That was the first election in Alberta which had been fought on strictly party lines. They knew the conservative policy was that of protection, and built up the manufacturers. For three general elections in Canada the conservatives had been sustained in this policy and it was for the people to say whether they would continue in power or not. Mr. Smith made certain quotations from Temple Bar a magazine circularted solely amongst the wealthy people of the west end of London, England, to show that direct taxation in England is burdensome, but the examples he read proved conclusively that it bore only on the wealthy classes. He spoke of pleasure carraiges, being taxed and showed that a man in England who kept a footman was taxed for such. He also undertook to show from speeches of various liberals that that party favored coercion, but the extracts only proved that they had refused to vote for the remedial bill because it was no remedy at all and an injustice to the minority in Manitoba.

Mr. Oliver, who was enthusiastically received, thanked the audience for their flattering reception. He agreed with the chairman that each speaker should have a fair hearing, but he also thought audiences had rights as well. That was the first time he had had the pleasure of listening to Mr. Smith and he had never heard more gentlemanly address. He thought Mr. Smith was unfortunate in his comparisons of the trade policy of Russia, the most despotic country, with that of Britain, the nation which leads the world. It was strange that the trade policy of the head of their empire should be held up to such adverse criticism. It seems that Britain's success is a mistake and we should not emulate it. If Mr. Smith wanted a comparison he (the speaker) would stand by Great Britain against all other other countries. He took issue with Mr. Smith who said it was a party contest. Mr. Smith was there to place Mr. Cochrane's position before them, but he (the speaker) was there to place his own position before them and he said it was not a party contest. He would accept the position as applied to Mr. Cochrane, and would hold him to it, for that was his only claim. That was the first time Mr. Cochrane had been legitimately represented in this contest. There were issues that were not party issues. The question of the development of this country was a greater issue than any other. (Applause.) That was not a party issue. If they thought we could be sure of its development by the conservatives they would vote for them, but experience had proved they could expect nothing from that party. They would not get anything by sending to Ottawa a registering machine. (Loud applause.) Regarding the tariff policy he would like to represent the liberal party. Mr. Smith said he put before them the liberal policy, but what he had said turned out to be only a lawyers quibble. The liberal policy was one of tariff for revenue only, with no protective features. The conservative policy is essentially protective. The immigration policy of the government had been a failure. One hundred and sixty wagons had gone through Red Deer this year on their way out of the country. They wanted a man to represent them and not a party. Mr. Cochrane asked them to vote for him because he would support a party while he (Mr. Oliver) asked for their votes because he would vote for the constitutency against all parties. With regard to the remedial bill the position was that the liberals say the interests of the Protestants and Catholics were not antagonistic, while the conservatives claimed they were essentially antagonistic. The remedial bill did not do justice to the Roman Catholics of Manitoba. It was a fake bill. (Applause.) The liberal proposition from the start has been to conciliate, and to see that equal justice is done to the minority and the majority. It was after all a question of electing a man who would represent the constitutuency and see that its needs were made known.

S. S. Taylor, M. McCauley and P. J. Nolan also spoke and the meeting dispersed at midnight with cheers for Cochrane and Oliver.

FREEDOM AND RESTRICTION.

The Australian colonies of New South Wales and Victoria have furnished the world a great lesson in the merits of the rival fiscal polices of freedom and restricton. According to an article in McMillian's Magazine for July, 1889, by Hon. Bernard Ringrose Wise, late attorney-general of New South Wales, the two colonies having started together as free trade colonies. Victoria after 20 years of freedom, adopted a policy of commercial restriction. At the time she made the change, in 1866, she had every advantage over the older colony. She was 200,000 ahead in population; she had £1,000,000 a year more revenue; her external trade was $8,000,000 a year larger; her area of cultivated land was larger by 150,000 acres; she was the equal of New South Wales in shipping and far ahead of her in manufactures. Since 1866 the two colonies have pursued their courses along the same lines in nearly all respects except as to their fiscal policies. The conditions of the comparison are considerably in favor of Victoria. Yet what is the result? Victoria, when she was a free trade colony was in everything which indicates material progress ahead of New South Wales, has been steadily falling behind in the race since she adopted protection. In 1866 the Victorian revenue was one million more, in 1888 it was one million less, than that of New South Wales. In 1866 the imports into Victoria were valued at five millions more than those in New South Wales; in 1888, the imports into Victoria only exceeded those into New South Wales by one million. In 1866 the exports from Victoria were valued at three millions more than those from New South Wales; in 1888, they were seven millions less. In 1866, under free trade, Victoria had already a considerable manufacturing industry, whereas New South Wales could hardly be spoken of as a manufacturing colony. Yet in 1887 New South Wales employed in her manufacturing industries 45,783 hands out of a population of a million, with a machinery of 26,152 h. p., while Victoria employed 45,773, with a machinery of 21,028 h. p., showing a surplus in favor of New South Wales small, it is true, but still a surplus. It is impossible, indeed, to resist the conclusion thot the progress of one colony has been hampered by protection, while the progress of the other has been furthered by free trade. —Vancouver World.

WHY IT MUST GO.

The Winnipeg Tribune has prepared the following list of reasons why the present Dominion government should go:

1. Because it has increased the net public debt from $140,362,069 in 1878 to $253,074,928 in 1895, an increase of $111,712,858, an average annual increase of $6,620,168.

2. Because it has increased the expenditure, aside from the capital expenditure, from $23,503,158 in 1878 to $38,132,002 in 1895, a difference of $14,628,847.

3. Because in the face of falling revenue, hard times, and a deficit for 1893-94 of over $1,200,000, it appropriated in the session of 1894 over $4,000,000 for railway subsidies, the object of the grants in the majority of cases being to give aid to its candidates in the coming elections.

4. Because it has squandered the public lands in the Northwest by lavish and unnecessary grants to railway corporations, having granted in this way up to April last 44,242,298 acres, which is twice the quantity of land at present under cultivation in the Dominion.

5. Because it has squandered public moneys in worthless investments made to serve the purses of friends, such as the Tay canal, which cost $476,128, and last year yielded revenue to the amount of $136.

6. Because it has superannuated civil servants in the prime of life to make places for its own retainers, and has brought the superannuation service to that point when the receipts last year were $63,274, an the payments $265,284.

7. Because it has copied the worst feature of American political rascality in the infamous gerrymander act of 1882.

7. Because by the franchise act of 1885 it ceased to permit the provincial lists to be used for Dominion elections, and adopted an expensive partisan scheme for making Dominion lists, with power to perpetrate gross outrages; and has given the country but one revision on an average each three years, costing in each instance over $250,900 in money, besides the expense in money and time the people are put to simply to secure the most cherished right of a British subject—the right to vote.

8. Because it went to the country at the last general election under false pretences, professing to be on the point of securing a reciprocity treaty with the United States, when no negotiations were in progress and no prospect of securing such a treaty existed.

10. Because it has distributed 25,000 square miles of timber limits among its friends and supporters, regardless of value without consideration.

11. Because it has utterly destroyed the independence of parliament and secured the support of a slavish majority; by gifts to members and then friends of timber limits, railway subsidies, and other favors.

12. Because it makes no attempt to secure purity of admistration, but, on the contrary, is governing the country by the most shameless and corrupt methods.

13. Because it is not an economical government, but it is responsible for a system of extravagance and waste in every department.

14. Because, when the country is staggering under a burden of debt and taxation, no effort in made to reduce the debt or or diminish the expenditure.

15. Because the tariff is not adjusted for the purpose of securing the revenue necessary for the economical administration of public affairs in the easiest way for people, but, on the contrary, is made the weapon of rings, combines, through the operation which they exclude foreign goods and secure the power to charge exorbitant prices for their own wares.

16. Because the promises made on behalf of the national policy were foundationless and false. It has neither marked the exodus nor given a home market for our farm products, nor increased the price of such products, nor secured prosperity for the country.

17. Because the extravagance of the government obliged the country to face a deficit of over $1,210,000 in 1893-4, followed by the largest deficit save one since confederation, namely, $4,153,375 for the year 1894-5.

18. Because the buried secrets of speculations, frauds and maladministration in the various departments should be exposed to the light of day, and the accounts and records should be investigated by men who are not concealing facts.

19. Because Canada is nearly at a standstill and her people are disheartened. Her present rulers are incompetent and their policy worse than a failure. We want new men, new methods, and the policy of the liberals.

20. Because parliamentary inquiry into grave charges made against members of the government in the Caron case was refused, the characters and allegations of said charge changed by the government to suit its own purpose, and the emasculated indictment thus prepared referred to a commission chosen by itself, before which acquittal was fore-ordained.

21. Because their policy has led to the scheduling of Canadian cattle in Great Britain and the quarantining of Canadian cattle in the United States.

INNISFAIL.

The conservatives have held a series of meetings in this district, but their success has not been great. In every instance, except two, Oliver electors were in the majority. In the two instances mentioned, the meetings were neither large nor representative. In every polling divison round here, Bowden, Tindstal, Burnt lake, Pine lake, Pleasant Valley and Innisfail, Cochrane will be behind—in some cases, very far behind. The speakers for Mr. Cochrance were Messrs. Muir, Nolan, Oldham and Fream; for Mr. Oliver, Wilkins, Wilson, Ross, Smith and Martin. Cochrane himself is expected to speak at Innisfail to-morrow, Friday. The electors will be happy to at last meet the conservative candidate, who seems to find it no easy matter to meet the electors of this division at a public meeting. We have had floods of talk from his representatives, but little or nothing from himself.

June 18, 1896.

LACOMBE LINKS.

At the political meeting held in the school house on Tuesday evening, the 15th inst. Mr. Cochrane failed to be present as he was expected to be. However, we had two good speeches from Messrs. Nolan and Sifton, of Calgary. There a large turnout, of which the majority were Mr. Oliver's supporters. Everything passed off smoothly as it did also at Mr. Oliver's meeting on the 4th inst., when there was a large turnout also, and Mr. Muir, of Calgary, replied to Mr. Oliver. There is little doubt, but what there will be a large majority in favor of Mr. Oliver here.

We have fine warm weather now with crops growing very fast, but lots of mosquitoes.

The new hotel is now under way and will be of good size and well finished.

Nelson Standish, a prominent farmer who has a homestead about five miles out of town and whose eyes were failing fast, left for Toronto about a week ago where he will be treated by a specialist.

Rev. E. J. Chegwin returned on Monday last from Winnipeg, where he was attending conference. He will be here another year.

EDITOR BULLETIN.

SIR: It having come to my knowledge that certain reports have been circulated reflecting on me in relation to business dealings that I had with P. Maisonneuve, of Morinville, during last spring. I request the privilege of your columns to say that I never was taken out of the hospital or poor house, that I never tried to beat Mr. Maisonneuve, and that anyone who says I did is a liar. It was reported that I had no cattle on shares at Beaver lake. I have at Malcolm McCallum's at Beaver lake, two head, at A. R. Moody's two head, and at P. Phillips's two head. I have paid Mr. Hirm, of Beaver lake, for one head which he is to deliver to J. Lafond, of Beaver lake, and I have paid Mr. Lafond for 18 head. If anyone disputes these statements I will furnish the proofs.

FRANK LAFORTUNE

GENERAL NEWS.

Sir Oliver Mowat at Oakwood said: Intelligent men everywhere, conservatives and liberals both, are disgusted with the scandalous transactions which have long been going on; and they are disgusted likewise with the neglect of duty or incompetence for its proper performance, of which there have been so many proved examples during the last 18 years. No private business could stand such misdoings as have taken place and as, no doubt, will be repeated in the future if the perpetrators or their friends are retained in power for another five years. No private proprietor or firm, no commercial financial or other company or association would have kept for a day such servants as the Dominion has had and has still. These transactions are abundantly sufficient to demand the defeat of those guilty of them and responsible for them. In spite of them all the government claim that they ought to be sustained because they support the so-called national policy. We say that their support of the national policy is one of the very reasons why they should not be sustained. We say, and not a few of our manufacturers say, that the national policy has been a failure; that it has not produced the results promised; that it has been bad for the farmers and other producers: that it has been bad for consumers in general; that, in fact, the so-called national policy has benefited no class except a few manufacturers who have become millionaires. It has been bad sometimes for even protected manufacturers.

Toronto Week: The force to be sent from Egypt into the Capt. Sudan will be a large one. This time the lines will be followed on which Lord Napier of Magdala carried out the Abyssinian expedition. That cautious old Scotchman left nothing to chance. He saw that everything was provided before he moved a man, and he took enough men with him when he did move. Sir Colin Campbell (Lord Clyde), another canny old Scott, acted in the same way in the mutiny. His tactics have been criticized, and always will be criticized, as erring on the side of too great caution, but he ended the mutiny. Fabius was removed because he played the same game against Hannibal—and we all know the result when he was superseded. There has been a great change in the British service since the Crimea. The British even the days of the Crimea. The British staff-officer is fairly up-to-date, and the old stock of "lions led by asses" cannot now be indulged in. We trust the pious wishes of Redmond, M. P., will not be realized.

Referring to the present condition of the wool market, The Commercial says: We wish we could say something encouraging; but we cannot because there is scarcely any demand from manufacturers. With the active movement of the new clip there will probably be a better demand. There are several reasons why the woollen manufacturing business is so poor. In the first place, there are about woolen mills enough in this country to supply woolen goods for the entire population in good times. At present times are hard and there is an under-consumption of woolen goods. Again, foreign manufactured goods, wool, shoddy and waste are being imported very extensively into this country, although times are so hard there is not enough business for our own mills. This makes a surplus of woollens. Wool is going to do better, but whether the improvement will come in one year or in two must be left for each one to decide for himself.

A report from Ottawa says that the appropriations made for the running of the country till June 30th, are nearly all spent. As over $38,000,000 was provided, there must have been many extravagant payments. For next year, if parliament had granted it, something like $40,000,000 was asked for. But this expenditure, thanks to the vigilance of the liberals, may not be required by the new government which will take hold at Ottawa within the next few weeks. In 1878 Sir Charles Tupper maintained that a liberal government was extravagant which spent $23,000,000 a year in running the country. Under the regime now dying she country has very little for an expenditure of nearly double that sum. Vancouver World.

Farmers ought to bear in mind that as they are by far the most numerous class they have the largest share of the public burthens to bear, while they are less favorably situated than others who, if the public imposts become intolerable, can gather up their property and leave: but the farmers who cannot move their land must remain with it and bear the burthen from which others are escaping; and experience must have taught them that every business, professional man or mechanic that goes leaves a greater share of the public burthen to be borne by them.

BY-LAW NO. 116.

A By-Law to authorize the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton to subscribe for shares to the amount of $80,000.00 in the capital stock of the Edmonton District Railway Company.

Whereas, a petition signed by at least three-fourths in number of the resident ratepayers of the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton, entitled to vote on by-laws requiring the assent of the electors, has been presented to the Municipal Council of the said Municipality for the passing and due ratification of a by-law to authorize the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton to subscribe for shares to the amount of $80,000.00 in the capital stock of the Edmonton District Railway;

And Whereas, the said, the Edmonton District Railway Company contemplate constructing, maintaining and operating a line of railway near to and within the Municipality, and the Municipality is, in the opinion of the Municipal Council, interested therein;

And Whereas, it is deemed expedient that the Municipality should subscribe for shares in the said, the Edmonton District Railway Company to an amount not exceeding $80,000.00, subject to such conditions to be agreed upon between the Municipality and the Company, prior to such subscription as shall appear necessary and expedient to the Municipal Council for the protection of the interests of the said Municipality;

And Whereas, for the purpose aforesaid, it is necessary to borrow the amount of the sum to be subscribed for, either in one sum or in several sums from time to time, as it becomes necessary to pay the calls upon the stock;

And Whereas, it is expedient that the subscription moneys when raised shall be raised by the issue of debentures aggregating the said sum of $80,000.00, payable in twenty years, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. payable half yearly;

And Whereas, the amount of the whole rateable property of the Municipality, according to the last revised assessment roll, is $1,131,780.00;

And Whereas, the total amount of the existing debt of the Municipality, outside of the debt due for the current expenses of the year, is $18,510.38, incurred for local improvements, and $30,965 incurred for permanent improvements, making in the whole the sum of $49,465 88, whereof no part is in arrear;

And Whereas, it is expedient to provide for the payment of the principal of the said debentures by the creation of an equal yearly sinking fund;

And Whereas, the total amount to be raised annually by special rate for the paying of the said debt, by means of a sinking fund as aforesaid, and the interest thereon as aforesaid, is $402.20;

And Whereas, the annual special rate on the dollar as being sufficient to pay the said interest and to create the said equal yearly sinking fund for the payment of the said debt is 3-6-10 mills;

Therefore, the Mayor and Council of the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton in council assembled, enacts as follows:

1. This By-law is to take effect on the first day of June, 1896.

2. The Mayor and Clerk of the Municipality are hereby authorized to issue debentures of the Municipality to the aggregate amount of $80,000.00, payable within twenty years from the day of the date on which this by-law takes effect, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable half yearly; such debentures to be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton, and to have attached to them coupons for the payment of interest.

3. For the purpose of paying the amount which shall be required to be raised annually for the payment of the said interest and creating the equal yearly sinking fund to be set apart for the payment of the principal sum of $80,000.00, a special rate of 3-6-10 mills on the dollar, over and above all other rates and taxes, shall be levied in the same manner and at the same times as the general Municipal taxes, upon the whole rateable property in the Municipality, in each year for the period of twenty years, during which the said debentures shall be current.

4. The said debentures, when so issued as aforesaid, shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the Municipality, and the same, or the proceeds thereof, shall be by him delivered to the Edmonton District Railway Company, only after the passing of, and according to the provisions of a by-law to be hereafter passed by the Municipal Council in that behalf, confirming an agreement to be made hereafter between the Municipal Council on behalf of the Municipality, and the Edmonton District Railway Company.

6. Arthur G. Randall is hereby appointed Returning Officer and St. George Jellett, Deputy Returning Officer to take the votes at the said time and place.

FOR POLLING DAY.

No one whose name is not on the list of voters in the possession of the deputy returning officer can vote at the poll except as follows:—

1 The deputy returning officer or his poll clerk or a Candidate may vote at the polling place where he is stationed, provided he produces a certificate from an enumerator (not from the [returning officer) certifying that he is on the list and entitled to vote in the enumerator's division (N. W. T. Rep. Act, S. 48.) (Election Act. 44, is not in force here: see Sec. 134 and N. W. T. Rep. Act—Sec. 67 and amendments.)

2 Any agent (or scrutineer) may vote where he is stationed though not on the list there, provided he produces a certificate from the enumerator as above mentioned, and also a certificate from a candidate authorising him to act as his agents, but not otherwise. (Rep. Act, Sec. 48 and Election Act, Set. 37.)

A voter becomes disqualified by receiving or being promised anything to induce him to vote, either directly or indirectly. Any person who makes a bet as to the result of the election in the district in which he votes becomes disqualified and will not be permitted to vote.

When a voter refuses to take the oath the deputy returning officer is bound to erase his name from the list.

An elector is not disqualified from voting by reason of absence from the terrritories or Alberta during the time prescribed for residence therein, provided such absence was only temporary and his home still remained in the territories or Alberta, but if he went away intending to stay but subsequently returned he has lost his right to vote. No one can vote who is not a British subject, and no alien is entitled to become a British subject until he has resided in Canada for three years nor to vote until he has made the necessary affidavits and the necessary certificate has been issued by the Judge.

Each candidate is entitled to be represented by two agents or scrutineers inside the polling booth while the voting is taking place, each of whom should be provided with a written authority signed by the candidate, but if there should be no such written authority any two electors may act as such agents or scrutineers. (Election Act S. 36.) As many outside scrutineers as may be required may assist at any poll.

Any person presenting himself to vote who is known to be disqualified by reason of age residence, nationality or on any other ground may be asked to take one or both oaths provided, his attention being first called to the point or points on which he is known not to be qualified, and if he takes the oath will be liable to be arrested and prosecuted for perjury.

FORESTERS CHURCH PARADE.

At South Edmonton on Sunday evening the members of Courts Clyde and Beaver House A. O. F. and Court South Edmonton I. O. F. paraded to the English church. The procession started from Wilson's Hall, headed by the South Edmonton brass band, and marched through the principal streets of the town accompanied by the Rev. Mr. Gray in cap and gown. At the English church seats had been reserved for the members of the orders in the front part of the church, in which a large congregation had already assembled. Mr. Gray took for his text the words, "Beloved let us love one another for love is of God and everyone that loveth is born of God and knoweth the Father," and preached an eloquent sermon. He said they were assembled there as courts of Foresters in a corporate capacity and their parade should show they were engaging in the worship of praise and prayer and thanksgiving, in obedience to God's command to acknowledge him, and prove themselves to be His children from whom He claimed implicit obedience. They had another duty to perform. Their object was to show that they placed implicit trust in God's most holy love. They must acknowledge it was their bounden duty to cultivate a love to God in return for His great love to them, and to show it in their actions. It was on the principle of love to one another that such societies had their foundation. It was part of their obligation and so long as would their influence be felt by those around them. The unselfish man sees everywhere the claims of others. Self seems nothing before the manifold demands upon his sympaty. To obtain this love they must go to the source of it and drink deeply. Their lives must be imitations as far as possible of the self-sacrificing life of Christ. With that love the worst things of life could be endured, without it a palace would be miserable. At the close of the service the procession was reformed and led by the band returned to the Hall, where short addresses were made by the Chief Rangers.

GENERAL NEWS.

A despatch from Athens, June 15, says: Advices have been received here that the Cretans in the Rhetuna district have again risen against the Turks, with the result that desperate fighting has ensued and a large number of men on both sides have been killed. It is reported that a British warship has landed blue jackets and marines on the Island of Crete to protect the Christians in the disturbed district.

A recent telegram from Constantinople, says: It is stated on reliable authority that 600 Armenians have been arrested in this city since June 9. A majority of the prisoners are from Rodosto. The members of the Armenian revolutionary committee, who, on Monday last, assassinated an Armenian spy in this city and who was shot and killed by the patrol while trying to escape, was a native of Rodosto. Two hundred of the prisoners were shipped to Anatolia. The government is using the occasion of the assassination to expel possible agitators.

A telegram to the Free Press from Tromso Norway, June 15, says: Herr A. Andre, of Stockholm, who proposes to make an attempt to reach the north pole by balloon, has sailed from here for Spitbergen, where the embarkation takes place. It is proposed to make the start from the Norskoerhe Island near the northern coast of Spitzbergen when the wind is blowing from the south. The balloon is equipped with drag lines, so that it will not move higher than about twenty-five metres above the earth. Herr Andre believes that he can sail around in the Arctic regions during a whole month, make observations, and take photographs. He then proposes to try to reach Alaska. He estimates that even with a moderate wind he should reach the North pole in three or four days from Spitzbergen.

A London despatch of June 15, says: Emperor William of Germany has sent a wreath to the first royal dragoons, of which he is colonel-in-chief, to adora their colors on Waterloo day. The battle of Waterloo, was fought June 13. 1815, and the first dragoons, which had previously taken part in the Peninsula war, were engaged there and lost heavily. This same regiment also fought at Balaklava and Sebastopol. This action of Emperor William, following close upon his wearing of a British admiral's uniform at the reception given to the visiting British naval architects in Berlin and his very friendly remarks upon that occasion, shows quite a change of front upon the part of the German emperor towards Great Britain.

QUALIFICATION FOR VOTERS.
